Join us on a guided tour of the Gaiety Theatre on Wednesday 17th May at 10.30am.

Proudly positioned on the promenade of Douglas stands the Gaiety Theatre, the jewel in the Manx entertainment crown. Steeped in history and tradition, the Gaiety Theatre is one of the finest remaining examples of work by the legendary theatre architect, Frank Matcham. First opened in 1900, the Gaiety Theatre underwent extensive restoration for 30 years to return it to its current magnificent condition. It's a stunning setting to enjoy a year-round calendar of plays, musicals, concerts and comedy shows.

Starting in the foyer, the tour takes us through the building beginning with the 'pretty areas' to the more practical backstage then under the stage into the 'trap house' then finally the costume display and historical lighting museum.

The cost is £10 per person.

Tours last approximately 2 ½ hours. Please note many parts of the tour are inaccessible for people with mobility issues.

This event is for Members Only and places are limited
